In 1911, Mrs. George Harrington of Eastlake Country Club in Atlanta and Mrs. Willard Parker Sullivan of Richmond, Virginia, (later of Birmingham) organized the first championship at Eastlake Country Club in Atlanta. The WSGA Amateur Championship has since been an annual event except for the war years of 1918 and 1942-1945.

The area of membership as voted in 1928 still comprises the 15 Southern States: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia, West Virginia and the District of Columbia. Through the years, many players in WSGA Amateur Championships have been named by the USGA as Curtis Cup Team members and Captains. Many players have also moved on to the professional ranks.

The Championship Trophy was initiated in 1925 and the excitement has continued with each year. The 2007 Championship saw Stacy Lewis (The Woodlands, Texas) defeat Virginia Derby Grimes (Meridian, Mississippi) 4 and 3. Riverchase Country Club in Birmingham, AL hosted the event.

The Evelyn Monsted Medalist Trophy was initiated in 2007 and was awarded to Stacy Lewis, The Woodlands, Texas with a score of 67.

The Marguerite Gaut Trophy was first awarded in 1953 to the Senior with the lowest qualifying score. Carolyn Creekmore from Brookhollow Golf Club, Dallas, Texas won this Trophy with a score of 76.

The Marty Webb Junior Trophy was awarded to Jillian Brodd from Fox Den Country Club in Knoxville, Tennessee with a score of 74.

The Riely Eakin Memorial Trophy was first awarded in 1967 to the qualifier with the lowest net score. Sara Marti from Houston, Texas and a student at the University of South Alabama won with a net score of 67.

The Team Trophy was first awarded in 1926 to two qualifiers from the same club with the lowest qualifying scores. Stacy Lewis and Lucy Nunn from the University of Arkansas posted a total of 145 to capture this award.
